

READINGS THIS WEEKEND

- 1) Genesis 18, 1-10
- 2) Colossians 1, 24-28
- 3) Luke 10, 38-42

Abraham took the virtue of hospitality seriously. When he saw three men standing about in the hot sun he ran out to meet them and insisted that they come and rest at his tent. (1) The opportunity to do good presents itself every once in a while, but many of us tire ourselves by running after it too far or too fast. The best investors do not wait for an opportunity to invest to come down the road – they run and seek out opportunities. The best stewards do not wait for God to provide opportunities to use time, talent and treasure – they seek out good investments in the currency of good deeds.

ATTENTION PERSPECTIVE PSR TEACHERS:

YOU may not even know you are one yet, but we know you’re out there! Let’s help Josh Danis, our new CRE (Coordinator of Religious Education) get off to a great start in August by showing our support by bringing in more volunteer PSR teachers than he knows what to do with!! Both High School and Elementary teachers are needed in order for us to have a few “extras” on hand for substitutes. Operators are standing by at 767-7450. ☺☺☺

FATHER LOUIE ASOBI - our friendly, visiting Chaplain from Springfield will be celebrating Mass with us once again this weekend. Please help us make Fr. Louie feel welcome while our pastor takes some much needed “R & R” time. Thank you!

DON’T TAKE A VACATION FROM MASS

if you’re traveling. Visit www.masstimes.org or call 410-627-6000 to find a Catholic church near “wherever” you are vacationing in the U.S.

From the Pastor

TIE A RIBBON TO TITHE

Going on vacation? Please remember to budget a gift for St. Paul’s. Your planned Sunday giving helps support all of our ministries as well as maintenance, supplies, utilities, personnel, etc., etc. We rarely make up for lost gifts/Sunday-giving when parishioners go on vacation. So tie a ribbon ‘round your finger to remember your parish. And while you’re at it remember the promise of Jesus, that whoever has “given” to the Lord, “... will receive many times as much, and inherit everlasting life.”

[Matthew 20:29]

GENTLE HEARTS, Shhhh! Don’t tell any-body. Let it be a “public secret.” You are invit-ed to present a monetary gift to Carole Grady on Sunday, August 1, 2010 as a token of your appreciation for her nine years of dedicated service to St. Paul’s. Thanks so much. If you cannot make the reception at 12:00 Noon, Sunday, August 1st, please give the gift to Gail at the Parish Office. Thank you. - Fr. Tony

Guess who turned three-quarters of a century old on July 15th, 2010. Here are some hints: he is a leader in our parish . . . his initials are PR . . . his title is “Deacon” . . . he has a hearty laugh . . . and he greatly “dislikes” balloons. Do you give up? COLLEEN GERKE TO HEAD FAMILY LIFE OFFICE: M. Colleen Gerke, faith formation director at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church in Liberty Township & a veteran religious educator, has been appointed director of the Family Life Office for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, effective July 19. The Family Life Office coordinates the Archdiocese's pro-life & pro-family ministries, including marriage preparation, marriage enrichment, outreach to divorced & separated, pregnancy help centers, post-abortion ministries & advocacy for special needs. "I'm looking forward to the opportunity to work with all the archdiocesan offices to build up the domestic church and families," said Ms. Gerke, the mother of five grown children. "I think we're at a very unique time in church history where there's a lot of potential for good. I'm really hoping to be able to embrace these opportunities and am looking forward to moving us along on our journey to do all that we can for God's people." A graduate of the College of Mount St. Joseph with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education and Special Education, Ms. Gerke was a substitute teacher and art teacher at St. Clement School in Cincinnati in the early 1990s. After earning a Master of Arts in Religious Studies with certification in Lay Pastoral Ministry from the Athenaeum of Ohio in 1995, she became director of religious formation at St. Clement Parish. Ms. Gerke left that position in 1999 to become assistant director of the Office of Religious Education (now the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis) for the Archdiocese. She returned to her previous post at St. Clement in 2000, remaining there until she joined the St. Maximilian Kolbe staff in 2005. Ms. Gerke was recently co-chair of the Cincinnati Religious Education Association and a board member of the National Association of Parish Catechetical Leaders. She & her husband, Dn. John Gerke, have been involved in marriage preparation since 1982. Her previous volunteer activities include Catholic Engaged Encounter, Birthright (housing unwed mothers) & baptism preparation. In 2001 she received the Pentecost Award from the Archdiocese for her work in developing sacramental preparation programs that involve the whole family. The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Cincinnati is the 38th largest Catholic diocese in the country, with almost 500,000 Catholics, and has the eighth largest network of Catholic schools in terms of enrollment. The 19-county territory includes 217 parishes and 112 Catholic primary and secondary schools.
